OWL Cardiff: flying high

CMSuptrak's Sally Cumner is one of the main organisers of the OWL series of events, for which LAPV and Future Fleet Forum are media partners.

In his presentation Driver Safety is your responsibility. How aware are you? Andrew Drewary from Broadspire touched on some hard-hitting issues.

Local authority fleet and transport managers from all over Wales attended the conference, which was supported by CIWM Wales.

The Optimised Waste and Logistics (OWL) show, held at the St Davids Hotel in Cardiff on April 12 2018, brought together high-profile speakers and industry leaders from both the public and private sectors. Among the topics up for discussion were driver and road safety, the future of FORS, the commercialisation of services, e-learning, and electric RCVs.

Pat Brown, Faun Zoeller, and Andy Collett, RVS, catch up at OWL Cardiff, where both companies were exhibiting their latest products.

The team from Macpac's refuse bodies showed one of their vehicles at the OWL event.
